

Application to register a change of name (adult 18 years or over)

Eligibility

- You must be 18 years of age or older;
- You were born and/or your birth is registered in Western Australia (WA); or
- If not born in WA but were born overseas, you must be an Australian citizen or permanent resident and have continuously resided in WA for twelve (12) months immediately preceding your application.
- If you were married in Australia and you want to use your spouse's surname or combine your surnames, this is done as a matter of custom and you do not need to register the change of name.
- You can only change your name once in any 12 month period unless there are exceptional circumstances.

Note: If you were born in another State or Territory of Australia you must apply to change your name in your birth State. You cannot apply to the WA Registry.

Instructions for completing this application

- Print clearly with black ink only.
- Symbols and abbreviations must not be used.
- To make an alteration, cross out the mistake and initial the change.
- Do not use correction fluid or tape.
- Do not fax or email the application form.
- If any requirements are not met, the application will not be accepted.
- If you do not provide any additional information requested by the Registry within 28 days, your application will be cancelled and a refund of any payment received will be posted separately.

Additional information

Processing time

- Allow a minimum of fifteen (15) working days to process your application, and a further ten (10) working days if paying by personal cheque.
- An incomplete application will not be accepted.

Notification

If your change of name application is successful:

- Any person whose birth is registered in WA will have the new name noted at the bottom of their birth certificate. That notation will appear on all birth certificates issued after the change of name is registered. Your original birth name will still be recorded on your birth certificate. A birth certificate including the change of name notation is available on payment of an additional fee. Refer to Part 6 for fees.
- Name changes may be notified to other organisations, for example the Police Department, Passport Office, Department of Immigration & Border Protection (DIBP) and Department of Transport.

Can my change of name be refused?

The Registrar may refuse your application if:

- a. you are unable to produce the required proof of identity documents; or
- b. you have failed to advise of previous changes of name in WA or other States/Territories; or
- c. you have outstanding debts; or
- d. you are ineligible, or your new name is considered to be a prohibited name i.e. obscene or offensive, too long, includes symbols without phonetic significance, or is considered to be against the public interest; or
- e. there is reason to believe that the application has been made for fraudulent or improper purposes.

You will be notified in writing if your application is unsuccessful.
